Certification Requirements
Conductor

Certified conductor must have knowledge of Railroad Timetable and how it is used. Student must be able to read and understand the train manifest and switch list. Understand basic terminology for communicating with the station master.

- Ensure timetable and operating role compliance.
- Ensure compliance with train orders.
- Plan switching operations with engineer.
- Responsible for switch positions.
- Demonstrate ability to decipher manifest / switch list.
- Demonstrate knowledge of layout (territory).
- Demonstrate Conductor skills in a regular member session.

Physical Requirements
- Must be tall enough to uncouple and rerail cars.