

Certification Requirements

Model Railroader

The Model Railroader has skills in the non-operational parts of model railroading. To be certified as Model Railroader you must complete requirements in 4 or more subject areas.

The subject areas are:

- Track installation and maintenance. Required
- Track wiring, DCC
- Track wiring, DC
- DCC operations and programming.
- Non-track electrical. Lighting up the layout.
- Ground cover and trees.
- Building construction and painting.
- Weathering.
- Rolling stock optimization and maintenance.
- Rolling stock construction.
- Layout construction.

Anyone certified in 8 or more areas will earn the title Advanced Model Railroader.